

Shark Class Homework, Term 1

Please choose any 5 of the following tasks (at least 2 must be writing tasks). Homework is due on Monday 13th October. Please send any pictures/videos to ella.collins@st-peters-folkestone.kent.sch.uk I would love to see them!

PoR

- Create a new front and back cover for The London Eye Mystery! Make sure you write a blurb (writing task).
- Make your own London Eye. It is up to you which materials you use!
- Create a fact file/ poster about one of the characters in The London Eye Mystery (writing task).

RE

- Choose your own way to show the story of Genesis 1. You might make a story map, create a collage or even choose to act it out!

Science

- Choose either 10 cold-blooded or warm-blooded vertebrates and create a branching key that could be used to identify the organisms using their physical characteristics. Your first question could be 'Does it have fur?' or 'Does it have scales?'.

Jigsaw

- You have been thinking about the rights and needs of yourself and comparing these with the wants and needs of children in different communities. Write a letter to the Government, persuading them to do more to help meet the universal rights of the children on the cocoa plantations in Ghana (writing task).

French

- Make a video that somebody could watch to help them learn French. Relate this to the topic you have been learning.

Computing

- Create an informative poster about Python! (writing task)

Music

- Create your own piece of music with your friends/family that includes a canon (a type of musical structure where an opening melody is imitated by one or more parts coming in one by one).

DT

- Become the chef for someone in your house and plan, prepare and make a recipe for them. Will it be a starter, a main or a dessert? Create a recipe of your dish. You will need to include the ingredients, equipment and easy to follow steps to make it (writing task).

History

- You've been learning about life in Tudor England. Create a scene that portrays an aspect of Tudor England. Who might have been there? What might they have worn? What might they be doing?
